Practice Focus

Founding and managing partner Mark E. Ellis is a trial lawyer whose practice embraces civil litigation in both state and federal courts. He has tried more than 70 cases to verdict, judgment or binding award. Many of Mr. Ellis' trials have lasted weeks. Several have lasted months.

Mr. Ellis believes there is an important distinction between a “trial attorney” and a so-called “litigator.” For discerning clients who understand the distinction, this makes all the difference.

Mr. Ellis defends professionals sued for malpractice, malicious prosecution, ethics violations, and other professional wrongdoing. Certified as a specialist in legal malpractice law by the California Board of Legal Specialization of the State Bar of California, Mr. Ellis has defended hundreds of such cases. As of 2015, Mr. Ellis had represented lawyers and/or law firms in numerous trials and/or arbitrations, winning virtually every case that reached a final decision.

Mr. Ellis handles financial institution, business and commercial litigation, including complex litigation involving class actions under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and under California's Unfair Competition Law, Business and Professions Code, Section 17200. His practice includes commercial and consumer litigation in state and federal courts related to the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) and the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), as well as their state equivalents. Mr. Ellis and the Firm have successfully tried several of these cases over the last few years.

2016 marked the twelfth year that Mr. Ellis has been selected by his peers to be recognized by the rating service Super Lawyers as one of the top 5 percent of lawyers practicing in Northern California. The honor includes being featured as one of the nation's top litigators in the 2016 Super Lawyers Business Edition, a publication distributed to 40,000 corporate CEOs, presidents and in-house counsel. It also includes being featured as a Super Lawyer in Sacramento Magazine.

Mr. Ellis is listed under the specialty of Legal Malpractice Defense in the 2017 edition of Best Lawyers in America, which was published by the international lawyer-rating firm Best Lawyers in November 2016. This is the eighth consecutive year that he has been so honored by Best Lawyers. His law firm, Ellis Law Group, LLP, has been ranked six consecutive years—2012-2017—by Best Lawyers and U.S. News & World Report as “top tier” in Northern California.

Mr. Ellis' practice includes the regular representation of clients before the appellate courts. A former appellate law clerk, Mr. Ellis has successfully handled scores of appeals before state and federal appellate courts. In February 2006, he was one of the winning attorneys in Rusheen v. Coben (2006) 37 Cal.4th 1048, a decision by the California Supreme Court. In 2009, Mr. Ellis participated in drafting and filing an Amicus Curiae brief on behalf of the California Association of Collectors (CAC) in the United States Supreme Court case of Jermon v. Carlisle.

Mr. Ellis has participated in dozens of jury trials, bench trials, and/or arbitrations. He has won over 90 percent of those trials or arbitrations that reached decision.

Mr. Ellis is licensed to practice in the State of California, in the State of Washington, before the United States Supreme Court, before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, and before all the Federal District Courts of California as well as several other federal district courts throughout the country.

Education

Mr. Ellis earned his Bachelor's degree in Government from the College of William & Mary in 1982. He received his J.D. from California Western School of Law in 1985, graduating cum laude. In law school, Mr Ellis also:

- Received the Diane Gafford Ethics Award upon graduation (1985)
- Received the Lloyd Griffin Ellis Scholarship (1984, 1985)
- Served on the Law Journal as a published member of the staff (1983-1984) and then as Head Lead Articles Editor (1984-1985)
- Served as a Legal Writing Honor's Instructor (1983-1984)

Professional Affiliations

Mr. Ellis is a member, past member or inactive member of the Sacramento, San Francisco, California, Washington State and American Bar Associations, the Federal Bar Association, the Defense Research Institute, the Association of Defense Counsel for Northern California, the Professional Liability-Underwriter's Society (PLUS) and the Member Attorneys Program ("MAP") of the American Collectors Association. Mr. Ellis served as the California MAP Chairman (2001-2002) for the American Collectors Association. He acts as a judge Pro Tem in the settlement department of the Sacramento Superior Court.
